Please complete this Application for Admission either electronically or by hand. The application and accompanying documents can be mailed via US Post or emailed (student's name in the subject) to the address above. Email is preferable.

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis throughout the year. Applications are reviewed once all documentation is received. All applicants must submit copies of current grade transcripts. Special Education Applicants, please submit Re-evaluation Reports (RR), Psychological Evaluations, IEP Reports, Discipline Records and Behavior Improvement Plans with this application if such reports exist. Additional school records and professional evaluations may be obtained by Wyncote Academy through a Release of Records form (attached), signed by a parent or guardian.

An application fee of $50 is required with this application. The Application fee must be received before consideration of the application and is nonrefundable.

An in-person interview with student and his/her/their parent or legal guardian is arranged after the application has been reviewed and accepted by the Admissions Department. Prospective students will then attend two Visit Days, shadowing another student. Admissions decisions are made following the Visit Days and notification of admission is made in writing.

Applications for Admission are considered separately and prior to any award of Financial Aid.
